

Proposed rewording of membership categories

Full membership

From:

Full Membership shall be limited to annually subscribing members of the CSP and to international physiotherapists who do not reside or work in the U.K. All international physiotherapists must be a member of a physiotherapy governing body which is a member of the WCPT

To:

Full Membership of POGP is available to annually subscribing members of the CSP, to non CSP members with a physiotherapy qualification who are HCPC registered and to international physiotherapists who do not reside or work in the U.K. who are a member of a physiotherapy governing body which is a member of WP.

Affiliate

From:

Affiliate Membership shall be limited to annually subscribing members of the CSP and to international physiotherapists who do not reside or work in the U.K. All international physiotherapists must be a member of a physiotherapy governing body which is a member of the WCPT

To:

Affiliate membership is available to annually subscribing members of the CSP, to non CSP members with a physiotherapy qualification who are HCPC registered and to international physiotherapists who do not reside or work in the U.K who are a member of a physiotherapy governing body which is a member of WP.

Student

Student membership is available to student physiotherapists currently enrolled on a suitable university course and new graduate physiotherapists (up to two years post-registration) who are registered with the HCPC and have a relevant physiotherapy qualification

International

From:

Overseas Affiliate membership is available to physiotherapists who do not reside or work in the UK but whose governing body is a member of World Physiotherapy (WP).

Overseas Full membership is available to those meeting the above criteria and who have successfully completed a post-registration course in women's health or continence.

To:

International Affiliate membership is available to physiotherapists who do not reside or work in the UK but whose governing body is a member of World Physiotherapy (WP).

International Full membership is available to those meeting the above criteria and who have successfully completed a post-registration course in women's health or continence.