

POGP POSTER AND INFOGRAPHIC COMPETITION 2022

POGP Research Prize 2022

We are delighted to invite POGP and other Physiotherapists to submit a digital poster of original work along with a 300 word (not counting references) abstract for the POGP 2022 Poster Competition.

Competition.

The submission should be of relevance to the POGP clinical area and categories are

- Original research
- Service development or innovation

We also are delighted to launch the POGP infographic competition. This format may be used to display research or a topic/subject. Please also submit a 300 word (not counting references) abstract. The highest scoring submission of poster will win the 2022 POGP Poster competition and the winner will receive prize money of £50; they will also be offered a platform presentation slot at our virtual study day. There is a separate prize for the best infographics, also with a prize of £50.

We are also delighted to restart the POGP Research Prize.

This will be awarded to the highest scoring abstract overall and the winner will be awarded a prize of £100; they will also be offered a platform presentation slot at our virtual study day.

We will also be judging to fill 2 more slots, giving a total of 4 slots overall to present research at the POGP virtual study day.

All posters/infographic/abstracts which meet the publication standard will be offered publication in the POGP Journal, aiming for spring 2023 publication. Please read the abstract guidelines document and publication guidelines carefully.

Key Dates:

Open for submissions: NOW

*Closing date: 20th July 2022

Decisions notification by:

*Entries will not be accepted after the closing date.

Both posters and abstracts will be judged using a scoring system anonymously by members of the educational subcommittee.

Please read Dr Kay Crotty's article titled 'Guidelines for preparing a poster for presentation at the POGP Annual Conference.' Journal of Pelvic, Obstetric and Gynaecological Physiotherapy, Autumn 2018, 123, 47–49

https://thepogp.co.uk/\_userfiles/pages/files/journals/123/cro840s58bv9.pdf

Please also read the guidelines for publication in the POGP Journal, which will assist in meeting publication standards. These are in each journal and also at

https://thepogp.co.uk/\_userfiles/pages/files/journals/122/gui033545dsg.pdf

- Orientation: portrait (i.e. vertical);
- size: 762 × 1016 mm (width × length);
- dots per inch/pixels per inch: 300; and
- font size: (main title) 36; (subheadings) 28;
- (text) 24; and (bullet points) 28 (maximum).

Please note a digital version of the poster is required not a physical poster.

A pdf of the poster plus the 300 word abstract written in the submission template can be sent to Shirley.bustard@nhs.net . Please DO NOT include your personal details in the submission template but include these in the registration form which must also be sent.

We look forward to receiving your submissions to this exciting competition to showcase new research, service development and innovation. Please complete the templates carefully as the 300 word limit will be strictly adhered to and we can only judge on what you send us, so take your time and carefully compose.

The competition is NOW OPEN.

Registration forms and submission templates can be found on the POGP website.